

Windrose Rural Media Trust presents:

THOSE WERE THE DAYS MY FRIENDS

Come along to the Marine Theatre for an evening of traditional folk songs and archive film, collected by the people of Dorset, about the people of Dorset.

With films spanning 1915 to the early 1970s, featuring many rural traditions as well as life in Lyme itself, this trip down memory lane will take you on a fun journey through moving pictures and music.

Sat 20th Oct, 7.30pm
£10.50 / £9.50 conc

The show has been especially created for the Marine Theatre and will feature interval entertainment from the Uplyme Morris Men.
