

Those Were the Days My Friends

Friday 20 September • 8pm

Tickets: £10 / £8 concessions (Members: £9 / £7)

A journey through time exploring decades of life in Salisbury and South Wiltshire through cine films dating from 1909.

Traditional songs of the area, performed live, weave in and out of images of our ancestors as we travel from street scenes to Salisbury's Coronation Day.

Guided on your travels, you'll be invited to live for a while amongst the music and walking images of our past.

Arrive early to watch 24 Hour Salisbury – a digital portrait of life in the city – at 7pm. FREE but ticket required.

MUSIC/FILM